Overview

The role of the Centennial Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Committee is to give the student-athlete a voice in the policy-making process of the conference. The SAAC shall be composed of at least 22 student-athletes in good academic standing from member institutions. Each institution is entitled to have at least two representatives with the following stipulations - representatives should be sophomores, junior or seniors; representatives should be one male and one female (two of one gender permitted from single-sex institution); one of the representatives shall be the chair of the institution's student-athlete advisory committee.

Mission Statement

As part of our mission statement to faculty and administration, we choose:

1. To recognize that athletics help to develop a well-rounded student, not only by providing discipline and time management skills, but also by allowing the athlete to set and achieve individual and team goals. Our athletic participation enhances our collegiate experience

2. To facilitate open communication between the athletic and academic communities to discuss issues regarding the aforementioned goals

3. To have an active role in each decision-making process involving our well-being as student-athletes
