External Advertising Policy

Policy/Procedure

Dickinson College is a private institution that does not permit solicitation or advertising by third parties other than official representatives of the College or commercial enterprises through its media or on campus without prior permission of the College. Dickinson reserves the right to refuse such access to the campus, any of its properties and its media in its sole discretion.

1. No advertising will be permitted that promotes the use of alcohol or that offers discounts on products or services that include alcohol.

2. No advertising will be permitted that is obscene, discriminatory or harassing.

3. Commercial or third-party advertising announcements must be consistent with the mission of the College and its policies.

4. The College must grant prior written approval of any solicitation or advertising before it occurs and reserves the right to reject any solicitation or advertising of any approved vendor in its sole discretion. Approval may be sought by contacting the Director of Media Relations at Dickinson College, P.O. Box 1773. Carlisle, PA 17013, (717) 245-1289, or media@dickinson.edu.

5. The College shall control the nature, duration, and means of any advertising or solicitation on its campus.
