Faculty Update

Professor David Crouch spent two years (2010 – 2012) as the Program Director of the Norwich Science Program in England, one of Dickinson's study abroad programs. While he was in Norwich and on sabbatical Prof. Crouch published two papers. Both of these papers were review articles on silyl protecting groups.

Here are the citations:

R. David Crouch. "Selective Deprotection of Silyl Ethers." Tetrahedron, 2013, 69, 2383 – 2417.

R. David Crouch. "Recent Advances in Silyl Protection of Alcohols." Synthetic Communications, 2013, 43, 2265 - 2279.

2013 Chemistry and B&MB Awards

CRC Freshman Chemistry Award: Kyle Liss '16, Gloria Hwang '16

ACS Polymer Award: Aaron Cook '15

ACS Undergraduate Award in Analytical Chemistry: Brianne Dudiak '16

Hypercube Scholar: Yike Li '14

2012 ACS Division of Inorganic Chemistry Award:
Thanprakorn Chiramanewong '13

Ernest Vuilleumier Scholarship: Alex Kasznel '15

Horace E. Rogers: Yike Li '14 & Rizwan Saffie '14

Richard Sheeley Memorial Scholarship: Mariah Murphy '15

John E. Benson Handbook Award: Aaron Brumbaugh '13 & Andrew Tolbert '14

Outstanding Sr. Award for Biochemistry: Phoebe Oldach '13

Outstanding Sr. Award for Chemistry: Emily Peterpaul '13 & Frankie Daily '13

ACS Outstanding Chemistry Student: Rebecca Thompson '13
