

DICKINSON COLLEGE

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY QUICK TIPS

WHAT IS PLAGIARISM?

1. Copying the work of others
2. Using quotes without giving proper credit
3. Paraphrasing or summarizing the work of others without giving proper credit
4. Failure to cite when restating the words and phrases of others

A WRITER'S REFERENCE

A Writer's Reference is the most widely adopted college handbook ever published. The new edition is available in a classic version that provides more help with academic writing, serves a wider range of multilingual students, and lends more support for college research -- all in an easy-to-use quick-reference format. This handbook is available for checkout in the library: PE1408 .H2778 2009

CAMPUS RESOURCES

Ask a Librarian

Reference Librarians are trained professionals who help library users find information needed for papers and other projects. Contact a librarian by visiting during Reference Hours, Chat Online through the library's website, or by email at library@dickinson.edu.

Citing Sources Guide

An interactive online guide to help you create properly formatted bibliographies, work cited lists, footnotes, and in-text notes for most research projects undertaken at Dickinson. This page is located under the Research Guides Topic Page on the library's website.

RefWorks

RefWorks is web-based bibliographic software that enables you to: organize your research, add citations while you write your paper, format a bibliography in a variety of citation styles, import references from many data sources, and create bibliographies in different formats. Check out the RefWorks Page under Research Guides on the library's website to learn more about this service.

The Writing Center

Get help understanding the goals of academic writing across the disciplines. Make an appointment with an English writing tutor if you want assistance. Check out the Writing Center Page or visit the Writing Center on the Main Floor of the Library to make an appointment.

Community Standards

Unsure of whether you are plagiarizing or not? Check out the College's Community Standards to understand what is considered academic misconduct at Dickinson. This document is available under the Dean of Students' page on the Dickinson Website.

Copyright & Communication Guide

In this web site, current copyright law and information regarding the protection of intellectual property are available for your information. Use this website, listed under the Research Guides page, to learn more about the intricacies of copyright law, and how they may affect you.
