These pages contain a wealth of information that you and your family will need as you prepare for Move-In Day, plan for Academic Advising and learn more about what to expect during your first year. You can also register for your Pre-Orientation Adventure Program until July 1 (registration opens May 15).

An Alumni Moment

“I believe in the mission of the college and our brand of liberal-arts education, and I try my best to give back to Dickinson in any way that I can.”

- Darrell Pacheco '12, investment advisor with the Vanguard Group

Be sure to use the Frequently Asked Questions page on the Orientation site to help you navigate some of the common questions posed by incoming students. It covers topics like what kind of computer you should bring, when you will find out your roommate assignment and everything in between.

Housing and Roommates

When completing the Housing Preferences form, you do have the option to request a roommate. We anticipate that most of you will wait for the Office of Residence Life & Housing to match you with someone using the preferences you list on the form, but it is an option for you to request a roommate. Please keep in mind it is a request, and not a guarantee. Our webpage has lots of information and things to consider if you are trying to find your own roommate, as well as information about why this is a request.

Featured News: The Great War and How to Teach It
