POPEL SHAW CENTER FOR RACE & ETHNICITY

Celebrates COMING OUT DAY!

The Popel Shaw Center for Race & Ethnicity operates proudly, “from an inclusive definition of diversity that includes race, ethnicity, nationality, socioeconomic status, religion, sexual identity/orientation, gender identity & expression, and the intersections of each of these social identity markers.” In this spirit we are excited to offer this resource for increasing education, awareness and engagement with books, films, and community resources pertaining to LGBTQ populations from historically underrepresented racial and ethnic groups.

We hope this resource serves as launching point for further inquiry!

(Please feel free to suggest additional resources we can add to the list by emailing psc@dickinson.edu with the subject line: LGBTQ resource suggestions)
