

Dickinson College Defined Contribution Retirement Plan

Invest in your retirement—and yourself—today, with help from the Dickinson College 403(b) Plan and Fidelity.

YOUR GUIDE TO GETTING STARTED

Invest some of what you earn today for what you plan to accomplish tomorrow.

Your Employer offers outstanding convenience and a variety of investment options. Take a look and see what a difference enrolling in the Plan could make in achieving your goals.

Benefit from:

Retirement planning tools. You have access to online tools designed to help you manage your assets as you plan for retirement.

Convenience. Your contributions are automatically deducted regularly from your paycheck.

Tax savings now. Your pretax contributions are deducted from your pay before income taxes are taken out. This means that you can actually lower the amount of current income taxes you pay each period. It could mean more money in your take-home pay versus saving money in a taxable account.

Tax-deferred savings opportunities. You pay no taxes on any pretax earnings until you withdraw them from your account, enabling you to keep more of your money working for you now.

Portability. You can roll over eligible savings from a previous employer into this Plan. You can also take your plan vested account balance with you if you leave the company.

Investment options. You have the flexibility to select from investment options that range from more conservative to more aggressive, making it easy for you to develop a well-diversified investment portfolio.

Online beneficiary. With Fidelity's Online Beneficiaries Service, you can designate your beneficiaries, receive instant online confirmation, and check your beneficiary information virtually any time.

Catch-up contributions. If you make the maximum contribution to your plan account, and you are 50 years of age or older during the calendar year, you can make an additional catch-up contribution of $7,500 in 2025. To learn more about what your plan offers, see "Frequently asked questions about your plan" later in this guide.

Enroll in your plan and invest in yourself today.

Frequently asked questions about your plan.

Here are answers to questions you may have about the key features, benefits, and rules of your plan.

When can I enroll in the Plan?

There is no waiting period. You can enroll in the Plan at any time.

How do I enroll in the Plan?

Enrolling in the plan should only take a few minutes. Visit netbenefits.com/nbao and click Get Started.

1. Log in or create a new account: If you have a Fidelity NetBenefits® or Fidelity.com account, we can use your information to save time. If not, click Register as a new user to verify your identity.
2. Link plan to your account: Enter your plan's 5-digit plan number: 56444
3. Enroll In your new plan: Provide custodial consent if required. You will then be brought to NetBenefits to make decisions about investments.
4. Obtain a Salary Reduction Agreement form from your campus Human Resources office. Use the form to indicate the percentage or dollar amount of your pretax salary you wish to contribute to the Plan. Return the form to Human Resources.

When is my enrollment effective?

Your enrollment becomes effective once you elect a deferral percentage, which initiates deduction of your contributions from your pay. These salary deductions will generally begin with your next pay period after we receive your enrollment information, or as soon as administratively possible.

How much can I contribute?

Through automatic payroll deductions, you may contribute up to 100% of your eligible compensation as pretax contributions.

What catch-up contribution can I make?

If you have reached age 50 or will reach 50 during the calendar year January 1 – December 31 and are making the maximum plan or IRS contribution, you may make an additional catch-up contribution each pay period. The maximum annual catch-up contribution is $7,500. Going forward, catch-up contribution limits will be subject to cost-of-living adjustments (COLAs) in $500 increments.

If you have 15 years or more of work experience and have contributed less than $5,000 a year, on average, to your retirement savings plan, you may be able to make additional "lifetime catch-up" contributions to your plan, allowing you to contribute up to a maximum of $3,000 per year, up to a maximum lifetime benefit of $15,000. Please note, in order to receive the maximum benefit from the age 50 and lifetime catch-up contributions, the "lifetime catch-up" limit for a calendar year ($3,000) must be used before the Age 50+ Catch-up is applied. Please consult your tax advisor for additional information.

What is the IRS contribution limit?

The IRS contribution limit for 2025 is $23,500.

Does the employer contribute to my account?

The employer may make a discretionary pretax matching contribution to your account. Contact Human Resources for additional information regarding your employer's contributions.

Note: Dickinson College contributes 8%. Eligible employees may receive an additional 0.50% if they contribute 0.50% of their own money.

When am I vested?

You are immediately 100% vested in your own contributions to the Dickinson College 403(b) Plan, as well as in any of the employer's contributions and any earnings on them.

What are my investment options?

To help you meet your investment goals, the Plan offers you a range of options. You can select a mix of investment options that best suits your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. The many investment options available through the Plan include conservative, moderately conservative, and aggressive funds. A complete description of the Plan's investment options and their performance, as well as planning tools to help you choose an appropriate mix, are available online.

What if I don't make an investment election?

We encourage you to take an active role in the Dickinson College 403(b) Plan and choose investment options that best suit your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. If you do not select specific investment options in the Plan, your contributions will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom® Fund Class K with the target retirement date closest to the year you might retire, based on your current age and assuming a retirement age of 65, at the direction of Dickinson College.

If no date of birth or an invalid date of birth is on file at Fidelity, your contributions may be invested in the Fidelity Freedom® Income Fund Class K. More information about the Fidelity Freedom® Fund Class K options can be found online.

Target Date Funds are an asset mix of stocks, bonds and other investments that automatically becomes more conservative as the fund approaches its target retirement date and beyond. Principal invested is not guaranteed.

Is there a self-directed brokerage option in my Plan?

For those desiring the most investment flexibility and choice, the Plan offers Fidelity BrokerageLink®, which gives you access to many other investment options. A complete description of the Plan's investment options and their performance, as well as planning tools to help you choose an appropriate mix, are available online at Fidelity NetBenefits.®

Note: Dickinson College only monitors the investment lineup it has made broadly available to all employees (please refer to the Investment Options section of this guide). The universe of investments available through Fidelity BrokerageLink® will not be monitored by the college, and investors assume all responsibility for their choices.

How much should I save for retirement?

Fidelity's online planning tools are designed to help you manage your assets as you plan for retirement.

Can I take a loan from my account?

Although your plan account is intended for the future, you may borrow from your account for any reason.

Learn more about and/or request a loan online, or by calling the Fidelity Representatives at 1-800-343-0860.

Can I make withdrawals?

Withdrawals from the Plan are generally permitted when you terminate your employment, retire, reach age 59½, become permanently disabled, or have a severe financial hardship, as defined by your plan.

Can I move money from another retirement plan into my account in the Dickinson College 403(b) Plan?

You are permitted to roll over eligible pretax contributions from another 401(k) plan, 401(a) plan, 403(b) plan or a governmental 457(b) retirement plan account or eligible pretax contributions from another conduit individual retirement accounts (IRAs) or certain non-conduit individual retirement accounts (traditional IRAs, Simplified Employee Pension plans, and "SIMPLE" IRA distributions made more than two years from the date you first participated in the SIMPLE IRA). A conduit IRA is one that contains only money rolled over from an employer-sponsored retirement plan that has not been mixed with regular IRA contributions.

Additional information can be obtained online, or by calling the Fidelity Representatives at 1-800-343-0860.

Be sure to consider all your available options and the applicable fees and features of each before moving your retirement assets.

How do I designate my beneficiary?

If you have not already selected your beneficiaries, or if you have experienced a life-changing event such as a marriage, divorce, birth of a child, or a death in the family, it's time to consider your beneficiary designations. Fidelity's Online Beneficiaries Service, offers a straightforward, convenient process that takes just minutes. To make your elections, click on the "Profile & Settings" icon in the upper right-hand corner, then select "Beneficiaries" and follow the online instructions.

Investment Options

Before investing in any mutual fund, consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses. Contact Fidelity for a mutual fund prospectus or, if available, a summary prospectus containing this information. Read it carefully.

Target date investments are generally designed for investors expecting to retire around the year indicated in each investment's name. The investments are managed to gradually become more conservative over time. The investment risks of each target date investment change over time as its asset allocation changes. They are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high yield, small cap and foreign securities. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after their target dates.

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity's analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories and not on the actual investment options and their holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options' Morningstar categories as of 01/31/2025. There may be a number of funds in each category and each may have a significantly different risk profile as compared to other funds within that category as well as compared to funds in other categories on the spectrum. Morningstar categories are based on a fund's style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options' objectives and do not predict the investment options' future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decisions. The spectrum does not represent actual or implied performance.

Non-Fidelity Government Mutual Fund Money Market: You could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not a bank account and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The fund's sponsor is not required to reimburse the fund for losses, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time, including during periods of market stress.

Stock markets are volatile and can fluctuate significantly in response to company, industry, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Investing in stock involves risks, including the loss of principal.

Investing in bonds involves risk, including interest rate risk, inflation risk, credit and default risk, call risk, and liquidity risk.

Description of Investment Options

American Century Inflation Adjusted Bond Fund Investor Class

VRS Code: 848487

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.54% as of 08/01/2024

Fund Objective: The investment seeks total return and inflation protection consistent with investment in inflation-indexed securities.

Fund Strategy: Under normal market conditions, the fund invests at least 80% of its net assets in inflation-adjusted bonds. It also may invest in derivative instruments such as futures contracts and swap agreements (including, but not limited to, inflation swap agreements and credit default swap agreements), bank loans, securities backed by mortgages or other assets and collateralized debt obligations. The fund may invest in U.S. Treasury futures, inflation swap agreements and credit default swap agreements to manage duration, inflation and credit exposure.

Fund Risk: The interest payments of TIPS are variable, they generally rise with inflation and fall with deflation. In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest income and who can tolerate more frequent changes in the size of income distributions than those usually found with more conservative bond funds.
- Someone who is seeking to supplement his or her core fixed-income holdings with a bond investment that is tied to changes in inflation.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
 - Duration is a measure of a security's price sensitivity to changes in interest rates. Duration differs from maturity in that it considers a security's interest payments in addition to the amount of time until the security reaches maturity, and also takes into account certain maturity shortening features (e.g., demand features, interest rate resets, and call options) when applicable. Securities with longer durations generally tend to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than securities with shorter durations. A fund with a longer average duration generally can be expected to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than a fund with a shorter average duration.

American Funds EuroPacific Growth Fund® Class R-4

VRS Code: 845638

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.82% as of 06/01/2024

Fund Objective: The investment seeks long-term growth of capital.

Fund Strategy: The fund invests primarily in common stocks in Europe and the Pacific Basin that the investment adviser believes have the potential for growth. Growth stocks are stocks that the investment adviser believes have the potential for above-average capital appreciation. It normally will invest at least 80% of its net assets in securities of issuers in Europe and the Pacific Basin. The fund may invest a portion of its assets in common stocks and other securities of companies in emerging markets.

Fund Risk: Foreign securities are subject to interest-rate, currency-exchange-rate, economic, and political risks, all of which may be magnified in emerging markets. Growth stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and can be more volatile than other types of stocks. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking to complement a portfolio of domestic investments with international investments, which can behave differently.
- Someone who is willing to accept the higher degree of risk associated with investing overseas.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The analysis on these pages may be based, in part, on adjusted historical returns for periods prior to the class's actual inception of 06/07/2002. These calculated returns reflect the historical performance of the oldest share class of the fund, with an inception date of 04/16/1984, adjusted to reflect the fees and expenses of this share class (when this share class's fees and expenses are higher.) Please refer to a fund's prospectus for information regarding fees and expenses. These adjusted historical returns are not actual returns. Calculation methodologies utilized by Morningstar may differ from those applied by other entities, including the fund itself.

Fidelity Freedom® 2010 Fund Class KVRS Code: 003021Gross Expense Ratio: 0.43% as of 05/30/2024Fund Objective: Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.Fund Strategy: Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds). Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund will merge with the Freedom Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of investors. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10 percentage points for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.Fund Risk: Investment performance of the Fidelity Freedom Fund products depends on the performance of the underlying investment options and on the proportion of the assets invested in each underlying investment option. The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked and foreign securities. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.Fund short term trading fees: NoneWho may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking an investment option intended for people in or very near retirement and who is willing to accept the volatility of diversified investments in the market.
- Someone who is seeking a diversified mix of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments in one investment option or who does not feel comfortable making asset allocation choices over time.

Fidelity Freedom® 2030 Fund Class KVRS Code: 003025Gross Expense Ratio: 0.56% as of 05/30/2024Fund Objective: Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds). Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund will merge with the Freedom Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of investors. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10 percentage points for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.

Fund Risk: Investment performance of the Fidelity Freedom Fund products depends on the performance of the underlying investment options and on the proportion of the assets invested in each underlying investment option. The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked and foreign securities. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Fund short term trading fees: NoneWho may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking an investment option that gradually becomes more conservative over time and who is willing to accept the volatility of the markets.
- Someone who is seeking a diversified mix of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments in one investment option or who does not feel comfortable making asset allocation choices over time.

Fidelity Freedom® Income Fund Class K

VRS Code: 003019

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.42% as of 05/30/2024

Fund Objective: Seeks high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: Investing in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds). Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a stable "neutral" asset allocation strategy (approximately 11% in domestic U.S. equity funds, 8% in international equity funds, 43% in U.S. investment grade bond funds, 5% in international bond funds, 3% in long-term treasury bond funds, 20% in inflation-protected bond funds, and 10% in short-term funds) The Adviser may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10 percentage points for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.

Fund Risk: The fund is subject to risks resulting from the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The fund is subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments. Fixed income investments entail issuer default and credit risk, inflation risk, and interest rate risk (as interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall and vice versa). This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking an investment option intended for people in retirement and who is willing to accept the volatility of diversified investments in the market.
- Someone who is seeking a diversified mix of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments in one investment option and looking primarily for the potential for income and, secondarily, for share-price appreciation.

Fidelity® 500 Index Fund

VRS Code: 002328

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.015% as of 04/29/2024

Fund Objective: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return (i.e., the combination of capital changes and income) performance of common stocks publicly traded in the United States.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in common stocks included in the S&P 500 Index, which broadly represents the performance of common stocks publicly traded in the United States.

Fund Risk: Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is seeking both growth- and value-style investments and who is willing to accept the volatility associated with investing in the stock market.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The S&P 500 Index is a market capitalization-weighted index of 500 common stocks chosen for market size, liquidity, and industry group representation to represent U.S. equity performance.
- Returns prior to May 4, 2011 are those of the Premium Class and reflect the Premium Class' expense ratio. Had the Institutional Premium Class' expense ratio been reflected, total returns would have been higher.

Fidelity® Contrafund®

VRS Code: 000022

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.39% as of 03/01/2024

Fund Objective: Seeks capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: Investing in securities of companies whose value FMR believes is not fully recognized by the public. Investing in either 'growth' stocks or 'value' stocks or both. Normally investing primarily in common stocks.

Fund Risk: The value of the fund's domestic and foreign investments will vary from day to day in response to many factors. Stock values fluctuate in response to the activities of individual companies, and general market and economic conditions. Investments in foreign securities involve greater risk than U.S. investments. You may have a gain or loss when you sell your shares.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is willing to accept the generally greater price volatility associated with growth-oriented stocks.

Fidelity® Extended Market Index Fund

VRS Code: 002365

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.035% as of 04/29/2024

Fund Objective: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return stocks of mid- to small-capitalization United States companies.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in common stocks included in the Dow Jones U.S. Completion Total Stock Market Index, which represents the performance of stocks of mid- to small-capitalization U.S. companies.

Fund Risk: Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Investments in smaller companies may involve greater risks than those in larger, more well known companies.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is seeking both growth- and value-style investments and who is willing to accept the generally greater volatility of investments in smaller companies.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
 - The Dow Jones U.S. Completion Total Stock Market Index is an unmanaged index that represents all U.S. equity issues with readily available prices, excluding components of the S&P 500.
 - Returns prior to September 8, 2011 are those of the Premium Class and reflect the Premium Class' expense ratio. Had the Institutional Premium Class' expense ratio been reflected, total returns would have been higher.

Fidelity® Global ex U.S. Index Fund

VRS Code: 002348

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.055% as of 12/30/2024

Fund Objective: The fund seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of foreign developed and emerging stock markets.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in securities included in the MSCI ACWI (All Country World Index) ex USA Index and in depository receipts representing securities included in the index. Using statistical sampling techniques based on such factors as capitalization, industry exposures, dividend yield, price/earnings ratio, price/book ratio, earnings growth, country weightings, and the effect of foreign taxes to attempt to replicate the returns of the MSCI ACWI ex USA Index. Lending securities to earn income for the fund.

Fund Risk: Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks, all of which are magnified in emerging markets.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking to complement a portfolio of domestic investments with international investments, which can behave differently.
- Someone who is willing to accept the higher degree of risk associated with investing overseas.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The MSCI All Country World Ex-US Index is a recognized benchmark of non-U.S. stock markets. It is an unmanaged market value-weighted index composed of a sample of companies representative of the market structure of 49 countries and includes reinvestment of all dividends. The MSCI AC World Ex-US Index, when including or excluding securities, takes into account any limitations that an international investor would experience when investing directly in such securities. The index contains both developed and emerging market securities.

Fidelity® Inflation-Protected Bond Index FundVRS Code: 002418Gross Expense Ratio: 0.05% as of 03/01/2024Fund Objective: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of the inflation-protected sector of the United States Treasury market.Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in inflation-protected debt securities included in the Bloomberg U.S. Treasury Inflation-Protected Securities (TIPS) Index (Series-L). Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default) and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure.Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Increases in real interest rates can cause the price of inflation-protected debt securities to decrease. Interest payments on inflation-protected debt securities can be unpredictable. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. The performance of the fund and its index may vary somewhat due to factors such as transaction costs, sample selection, and timing differences associated with additions to and deletions from its index.Fund short term trading fees: NoneWho may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest income and who can tolerate more frequent changes in the size of income distributions than those usually found with more conservative bond funds.
- Someone who is seeking to supplement his or her core fixed-income holdings with a bond investment that is tied to changes in inflation.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The Bloomberg U.S. TIPS Index is an unmanaged index designed to represent securities that protect against adverse inflation and provide a minimum level of real return. To be included in this index, bonds must have cash flows linked to an inflation index, be sovereign issues denominated in U.S. currency, and have more than one year to maturity, and, as a portion of the index, total a minimum amount outstanding of 100 million U.S. dollars.

Fidelity® Total Bond FundVRS Code: 000820Gross Expense Ratio: 0.44% as of 10/30/2024Fund Objective: Seeks a high level of current income.Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in debt securities of all types and repurchase agreements for those securities. Allocating assets across investment-grade, high yield, and emerging market debt securities. Investing up to 20% of assets in lower-quality debt securities. Managing the fund to have similar overall interest rate risk to the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index. Investing in domestic and foreign issuers. Allocating assets across different asset classes, market sectors, and maturities. Analyzing the credit quality of the issuer, the issuer's potential for success, the credit, currency, and economic risks of the security and its issuer, security-specific features, current and potential future valuation, and trading opportunities to select investments. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default), options, and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk, liquidity risk, call risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Lower-quality bonds can be more volatile and have greater risk of default than higher-quality bonds. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks, all of which are magnified in emerging markets. Leverage can increase market exposure and magnify investment risk.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest income rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

- The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index for U.S. dollar denominated investment-grade fixed-rate debt issues, including government, corporate, asset-backed, and mortgage-backed securities with maturities of at least one year.

Fidelity® U.S. Bond Index Fund

VRS Code: 002326

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.025% as of 10/30/2024

Fund Objective: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the aggregate price and interest performance of the debt securities in the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of the fund's assets in bonds included in the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index. Using statistical sampling techniques based on duration, maturity, interest rate sensitivity, security structure, and credit quality to attempt to replicate the returns of the Index using a smaller number of securities. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default) and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

- Duration is a measure of a security's price sensitivity to changes in interest rates. Duration differs from maturity in that it considers a security's interest payments in addition to the amount of time until the security reaches maturity, and also takes into account certain maturity shortening features (e.g., demand features, interest rate resets, and call options) when applicable. Securities with longer durations generally tend to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than securities with shorter durations. A fund with a longer average duration generally can be expected to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than a fund with a shorter average duration.
- Returns prior to May 4, 2011 are those of the Premium Class and reflect the Premium Class' expense ratio. Had the Institutional Premium Class' expense ratio been reflected, total returns would have been higher.

JPMorgan Equity Income Fund Class R4

VRS Code: 839983

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.7% as of 11/01/2024

Fund Objective: The investment seeks capital appreciation and current income.

Fund Strategy: Under normal circumstances, at least 80% of the fund's assets will be invested in the equity securities of corporations that regularly pay dividends, including common stocks and debt securities and preferred securities convertible to common stock. Although the fund invests primarily in securities of large cap companies, it may invest in equity investments of companies across all market capitalizations.

Fund Risk: Value stocks can perform differently than other types of stocks and can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is comfortable with the volatility of large-cap stocks and value-style investments.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
 - The analysis on these pages may be based, in part, on adjusted historical returns for periods prior to the class's actual inception of 09/09/2016. These calculated returns reflect the historical performance of the oldest share class of the fund, with an inception date of 07/02/1987, adjusted to reflect the fees and expenses of this share class (when this share class's fees and expenses are higher.) Please refer to a fund's prospectus for information regarding fees and expenses. These adjusted historical returns are not actual returns. Calculation methodologies utilized by Morningstar may differ from those applied by other entities, including the fund itself.

T. Rowe Price Small-Cap Value Fund

VRS Code: 899169

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.8% as of 05/01/2024

Fund Objective: The investment seeks long-term capital growth by investing primarily in small companies whose common stocks are believed to be undervalued.

Fund Strategy: The fund invests at least 80% of its net assets (including any borrowings for investment purposes) in companies with a market capitalization that is within or below the range of companies in the Russell 2000® Index. The fund may, on occasion, purchase companies with a market capitalization above the range.

Fund Risk: The securities of smaller, less well-known companies can be more volatile than those of larger companies. Value and growth stocks can perform differently from other types of stocks. Growth stocks can be more volatile. Value stocks can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is seeking both growth- and value-style investments and who is willing to accept the generally greater volatility of investments in smaller companies.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The Russell 2000® Index is an unmanaged market capitalization-weighted index of 2,000 small company stocks of U.S. domiciled companies.

Vanguard Federal Money Market Fund Investor Shares

VRS Code: 845481

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.11% as of 12/20/2024

Fund Objective: The investment seeks to provide current income while maintaining liquidity and a stable share price of $1.

Fund Strategy: The fund invests primarily in high-quality, short-term money market instruments. Under normal circumstances, at least 80% of the fund's assets are invested in securities issued by the U.S. government and its agencies and instrumentalities. The adviser maintains a dollar-weighted average maturity of 60 days or less and a dollar-weighted average life of 120 days or less. The fund generally invests 100% of its assets in U.S. government securities and therefore will satisfy the 99.5% requirement for designation as a government money market fund.

Fund Risk: You could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not a bank account and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The fund's sponsor is not required to reimburse the fund for losses, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time, including during periods of market stress. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who has a low tolerance for investment risk and who wishes to keep the value of his or her investment relatively stable.
- Someone who is seeking to complement his or her bond and stock fund holdings in order to reach a particular asset allocation.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- Weighted average maturity (WAM) is the weighted average of all the maturities of the securities held in a fund. WAM for money market funds can be used as a measure of sensitivity to interest rate changes. Generally, the longer the maturity, the greater the sensitivity. WAM for money market funds is based on the dollar-weighted average length of time until principal payments must be paid, taking into account any call options exercised by the issuer and any permissible maturity shortening devices, such as demand features and interest rate resets. For bond funds, WAM can be used as a measure of sensitivity to the markets. Generally, the longer the maturity, the greater the sensitivity. The WAM calculation for bond funds excludes interest rate resets and only takes into account issuer call options if it is probable that the issuer of the instrument will take advantage of such options.
- For money market funds, weighted average life (WAL) is the weighted average of the life of the securities held in a fund or portfolio, and can be used as a measure of sensitivity to changes in liquidity and/or credit risk. Generally, the higher the value, the greater the sensitivity. WAL is based on the dollar-weighted average length of time until principal payments must be paid, taking into account any call options exercised by the issuer and any permissible maturity shortening features other than interest rate resets. For money market funds, the difference between weighted average maturity (WAM) and WAL is that WAM takes into account interest rate resets and WAL does not. WAL for money market funds is not the same as WAL of a mortgage- or asset-backed security.

Reference the instructions below while completing the form. For additional assistance, please contact Fidelity Investments at 1-800-343-0860 or, for the hearing impaired, dial 711, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to midnight Eastern time (excluding New York Stock Exchange holidays, except Good Friday).

1. YOUR INFORMATION

Please provide your information in this section.

2. INVESTMENT PROVIDER YOU ARE MOVING MONEY FROM

Please review your most recent statement for this name and address, and include a copy of the statement with this form. Please contact your previous investment provider to see if additional paperwork is required.

3. ACCOUNT(S) OR CONTRACT(S) TO MOVE

Account or Contract Number: This number is available on your previous investment provider account statement. If you are unable to locate this number on your statement, please contact the investment provider. If you do not provide an account or contract number, we will use your Social Security number or U.S. Tax Identification number to request the assets to be moved.

Type of Account or Contract: If you are unsure of the type of account or contract, please contact the Previous Investment Provider or refer to your statement. Select at least one.

The Account or Contract Number is from: Please see the descriptions below that relate to each of the four transactions. If you choose "A Previous Employer," provide the name of that employer.

The Same Employer as My Employer Plan with Fidelity. Movement of assets from 403(b) to 403(b) will be requested as a vendor or contract exchange. Movement of money between the same plan types, excluding 403(b) plans [401(a) to 401(a), 401(k) to 401(k), 457(b) to 457(b)], will be requested as an in-plan transfer. Movement of money between different plan types will be requested as a rollover.

A Previous Employer. For 403(b) and 401(a)/(k) plans, this is a rollover transaction. For governmental 457(b) plans, this is a rollover unless Fidelity receives direction to process as a transfer.

A Rollover IRA. This is a rollover transaction. After-tax value may not be rolled from an IRA.

A Traditional IRA or SEP IRA. This is a rollover transaction. Roth IRAs and Coverdell IRAs cannot be accepted.

Liquidation Amount: Specify the amount of money you want moved to your Fidelity account. If you choose "Full Liquidation/100%," Fidelity will request your full balance. If you choose "Partial Liquidation," Fidelity will request the dollar amount or percentage you specify. If you do not specify an amount, Fidelity will move/liquidate 100%. If you are moving 457(b) assets, please be aware that governmental 457(b) assets must be moved into a governmental 457(b) plan, and nongovernmental 457(b) assets must be moved into a nongovernmental 457(b) plan. Transfers from nongovernmental 457(b) plans are not provided for on this form. Talk with your plan sponsor or call Fidelity to discuss transfers from nongovernmental 457(b) plans. Rollovers from 403(b) plans, 401(a)/401(k) plans, and IRAs to governmental 457(b) plans must be recordkept in separate rollover sources to limit the distributions that may be subject to a 10% early distribution penalty.

- I hereby agree to the terms and conditions stated in this form, including the instructions, and certify that I am requesting a vendor or contract exchange, in-plan transfer, or rollover, of my retirement plan assets in accordance with applicable IRS and plan rules.
- I certify under the penalties of perjury that my Social Security number or U.S. Tax Identification number on this form is correct.
- I certify that the information provided on this form is true, accurate, and complete to the best of my knowledge.
- I acknowledge that I have read the prospectus(es) for any mutual fund in which I invest and agree to the terms.
- I hereby agree that if my assets will be sent to Fidelity in installments, the first installment may be invested according to my instructions on this form. All subsequent installment payments as well as any residual balances not received within 30 days will be invested according to the investment elections currently in place with Fidelity for the Plan at the time my assets are received by Fidelity.

For 403(b)-to-403(b) vendor or contract exchanges:

- I understand that any balances I am exchanging from a 403(b)(1) annuity into a 403(b)(7) custodial account may be subject to more restrictive withdrawal provisions.
- I understand that if I exchange a contribution source that is not allowed by the Plan, the value associated with the unacceptable source will be returned to the investment provider named in Section 2.
- I direct Fidelity to treat all monies as pretax contributions made subsequent to 12/31/88 unless my prior investment provider provides Fidelity with account balances as of 12/31/88 and post-1988 salary reduction contributions.
- I direct Fidelity to treat the entire balances as subject to minimum distribution requirements unless my prior investment provider provides Fidelity with account balances as of 12/31/86.
- I direct Fidelity to allocate the entire balance to the most restrictive source in the current employer's plan unless my prior investment provider provides Fidelity with the sources of the exchanged amount under the previous plan.

A mutual fund expense ratio is the total annual fund or class operating expenses (before waivers or reimbursements) paid by the fund and stated as a percentage of the fund's total net assets. For other types of investments, the figure in the expense ratio field reflects similar information, but may have been calculated differently than for mutual funds. Mutual fund data comes from the fund's prospectus. For non-mutual fund investment options, the information has been provided by the plan sponsor, the investment option's manager, or the trustee. When no ratio is shown for these options, it is because none was available. There may be fees and expenses associated with the investment option. Expense information changes periodically. Please consult NetBenefits.com for updates.

This document provides only a summary of the main features of the Dickinson College 403(b) Plan and the Plan Document will govern in the event of discrepancies.

The Plan is intended to be a participant-directed plan as described in Section 404(c) of ERISA, which means that fiduciaries of the Plan are ordinarily relieved of liability for any losses that are the direct and necessary result of investment instructions given by a participant or beneficiary.
