Subject: Three things for May 16 (including housing and Pre-O info!)

Here's your weekly list of three things to do to prepare for Dickinson.

1

Learn More About Learning Communities

Learning Communities are an extension of the First-Year Seminar (FYS) program, in which two or more seminars are linked or clustered around a theme, and the students are housed in a common residential learning environment. Keep in mind that if you select a seminar that is part of a Learning Community, it could affect a mutual roommate request (i.e., both potential roommates must be part of the same Learning Community).

Consider Your Housing Options

We anticipate that most of you will wait for the Office of Residence Life & Housing to match you with someone using the preferences you list on the form, but it is an option for you to request a roommate. Please keep in mind it is a request, and not a guarantee. Our webpage has lots of information and things to consider if you are trying to find your own roommate.

Pick Your Pre-O!

Registration for the Pre-Orientation Adventure Programs is open! You have until July 1 to join them! Whether you want to finesse your music or theatre performance skills, engage in community service or get innovative with the Idea Fund, there are great options available, and even the opportunity to apply for financial assistance.

Please note that you must complete your First-Year Seminar Selection form by June 1 and your Roommate Preferences & Housing Agreement Form by July 1 in order to participate in a Pre-Orientation Adventure Program.

Start your Dickinson experience off strong with these important action items, and watch for three more next week! Reach out to slce@dickinson.edu anytime if you have questions, or post them to the Class of 2022 Facebook page.

Respectfully,

Josh Eisenberg

Assistant Dean of Student Leadership and New Student Programs
