Subject: Three things for May 30 (including a seminar assignment update!)

June 1 is Friday! If you have not completed the forms that are due, please make that a top priority. Here's your weekly list of three things to do to prepare for Dickinson.

1

Find out your First-Year Seminar assignment

We are finalizing your First-Year Seminar assignments! As soon as they are available next week, we will post an announcement on the class of 2022 Facebook page. Then you will be able to check the Dickinson Gateway for your assignment by selecting the SSB icon and then Student/Course Selection/Active Courses.) Pro tip: You will receive your residence hall and roommate assignment in early August, so make sure you submit your Roommate Preferences & Housing Agreement Form before July 1.

See what our newest graduates are up to!

Just over a week ago, the class of 2018 signed out of the college and joined the ranks of alumni. Check out the Life Beyond the Limestone page to learn more about where this group of graduates is heading (including places like the National Institutes of Health, the Peace Corps, Twitter, Amazon, IBM, General Dynamics, Ernst & Young and Carnegie Mellon, Fordham, Johns Hopkins and Columbia universities.)

Learn more about and sign up for E-Billing and Proxy Access.

The Student Accounts Office offers paperless billing for students, as well as the ability for parents to be assigned as a proxy, which will allow them to receive monthly email notifications when a new invoice has been generated and to view, print and pay online in real-time. Learn more and enroll today.

Start your Dickinson experience off strong with these important to-do items, and watch for three more next week! Reach out to slce@dickinson.edu anytime if you have questions, or post them to the Class of 2022 Facebook page.

Respectfully,

Josh Eisenberg

Assistant Dean of Student Leadership and New Student Programs

P.S. Did you miss a previous "three things" email? All messages will be available on our archive page.
