

COME LEARN ABOUT THE FALL 2019 CARLISLE MOSAIC PEOPLE, PLACE AND POLICY

COST: $0 | APPLY ONLINE IN STUDIO ABROAD BY MARCH 8, 2019

Students will investigate approaches through which Carlisle might become a more resilient and sustainable community in this four-course interdisciplinary program. They will learn and apply methods of history, demography, economics and systems analysis to examine questions about deindustrialization, suburban sprawl, segregation, concentration of poverty and other processes. The Mosaic will feature a semester-long community-based research project.
