Here's your weekly list of three things to do to prepare for Dickinson.

1. Pick Your Pre-O!
   Registration for the Pre-Orientation Adventure Programs is open! You have until July 15 to join them! Whether you want to finesse your music or theatre performance skills, engage in community service or get innovative with the Idea Fund, there are great options available, and even the opportunity to apply for financial assistance.

   Please note that you must complete your First-Year Seminar Selection form by June 1 and your Roommate Preferences & Housing Agreement Form by July 1 in order to participate in a Pre-Orientation Adventure Program.

2. Find Answers to Your Questions
   Use the Frequently Asked Questions page to navigate some of the common questions posed by incoming students. It covers topics like what kind of computer you should bring, when you will find out your roommate assignment and everything in between.

3. Consider Your Housing Options
   We anticipate that most of you will wait for the Office of Residence Life & Housing to match you with someone using the preferences you list on the form, but it is an option for you to request a roommate. Please keep in mind it is a request, and not a guarantee.
Our webpage has lots of information and things to consider if you are trying to find your own roommate.

Start your Dickinson experience off strong with these three important to-do items, and watch for three more next week! Reach out to slce@dickinson.edu anytime if you have questions, or post them to the Class of 2023 Facebook page.

Respectfully,

Josh Eisenberg
Associate Dean of Student Leadership and New Student Programs

P.S. Did you miss the previous "three things" email? All messages will be available on our archive page.