Three Things for May 22

It's been an exciting few days at Dickinson as we celebrated the graduating class of 2019. Check out coverage of the festivities (including an excellent speech by environmentalist and actor Pierce Brosnan) and enjoy thinking about how this will be YOU in four years!

1. Complete your June 1 forms ASAP!
   June 1 is quickly approaching, so if you've been putting off completing your forms, now is the time! It's important that all forms are completed on time so we can ensure you are ready to start your Dickinson experience as soon as you arrive on campus. (And there's no need to wait until the end of June to work on those July 1 forms—the sooner you complete them, the better!)

2. Visiting Campus? Get your I.D. card!
   Check one thing off your move-in day to-do list by stopping by the I.D. office in the Holland Union Building anytime during normal business hours (8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.) to get your I.D. card created! Your I.D. card will be used to purchase meals, use the college printers and laundry machines, check out materials from the library and media center, grant you access to events and certain buildings and more.

3. Display your Red Devil Pride
   Show your Dickinson spirit by updating your computer wallpaper, your mobile background or lock screen and your Facebook cover image. And if you're planning a Dickinson celebration, our party printables will make a great decorative addition! Access everything at dickinson.edu/dickinsondownloads.

Start your Dickinson experience off strong with these three important to-do items, and watch for three more next week! Reach out to slce@dickinson.edu anytime if you have questions, or post them to the Class of 2023 Facebook page.

Respectfully,

Josh Eisenberg
Associate Dean of Student Leadership and New Student Programs

P.S. Did you miss the previous "three things" email? All messages will be available on our archive page.