Three Things for June 12

Here’s your weekly list of three things to do to prepare for Dickinson.

1. Don’t be late—finish your forms by July 1!
   Essential forms that must be completed by July 1 include health forms, music and language background forms, your Roommate Preferences & Housing Agreement Form and any placement tests. Forms and links are available at http://gateway.dickinson.edu.

2. Prepare for your financial future—Complete your iGrad registration
   The Dickinson College community has access to a wonderful resource for learning how to manage your money, pay for school, plan for a career, and much more. Register for your account at https://dickinson.igrad.com. While there, you can check out the scholarship search tool, take a money personality quiz, play “real-world simulator” games such as financial football, ID Theft FaceOff, or Invest Quest, review the calculator offerings, or take a 15-20 minute course on a topic that interests you. Be sure to let your family members know they can join as well!

3. Prepare for placement exams
   Everything you need to know about placement exams—what to take and what not to take, how to find the exams, who to contact with issues and frequently asked questions—is available on the Orientation website.
Start your Dickinson experience off strong with these three important to-do items, and watch for three more next week! Reach out to slce@dickinson.edu anytime if you have questions, or post them to the Class of 2023 Facebook page.

Respectfully,

Josh Eisenberg
Associate Dean of Student Leadership and New Student Programs
