Three Things for July 3

Here's your weekly list of three things to do to prepare for Dickinson.

1. Be ready for your summer advising call!
Summer advising starts soon! You will begin your academic journey this summer by requesting your first semester's courses. Our faculty members will be making calls from the Advising Office July 15-19 to discuss your course requests. Please review the information on our website, which explains when to expect your call and how to prepare for it.

2. Be in the know
When a student is experiencing a mental health crisis, having timely access to on and off campus emergency resources is essential. To that end, all newly printed Dickinson ID’s will include contact information for national and on-campus emergency mental health resources that can be utilized in a crisis situation. Starting with our new first year class, the back of every Dickinson ID will contain contact information for the following 24 hour emergency resources: Crisis Text Line, the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline and Dickinson’s Department of Public Safety. Contact information for the Dickinson College Wellness Center will also be included on every Dickinson ID. This information will appear as follows:

Mental Health Crisis? Text HELP to 741741
24 Hour National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 1-800-273-8255
DPS 24 Hour Emergency 717-245-1111
Wellness Center 717-245-1663
Remember that you can visit the ID office this summer to beat the Orientation rush and get your ID printed!

3

Plan your payments

Dickinson offers an interest-free monthly tuition installment plan through NelNet Campus Commerce. This plan allows you to spread out your fall semester out-of-pocket balance over five months (June to October) and spring semester out-of-pocket balance over five months (November to March) for a small enrollment fee of $35 per semester. For more information, or to enroll in the plan, please dial 1-800-722-4867 or visit the tuition payment plans page.

Start your Dickinson experience off strong with these three important to-do items, and watch for three more next week! Reach out to slce@dickinson.edu anytime if you have questions, or post them to the Class of 2023 Facebook page.

Respectfully,

Josh Eisenberg

Associate Dean of Student Leadership and New Student Programs

P.S. Did you miss the previous "three things" email? All messages will be available on our archive page.