

Deliveries and Solicitation Policy

Policy/Procedure

For the safety and privacy of all members of the campus community, solicitors, peddlers and door-to-door solicitations are not permitted on campus, including in any campus buildings.

Members of the campus community are not permitted to raise funds or sell products on campus without permission from the office of Student Leadership & Campus Engagement or CASE (Conference and Special Events). No one, including members of the campus community, is permitted to solicit, raise funds, or sell products in the residential facilities.

No deliveries are to be made to an individual room in any campus building, including the residence halls. All personnel delivering personal products should be directed to meet the purchaser at the main entrance to a campus building.
