

Dickinson Summer Programs Refunds

Policy/Procedure

A student's date of withdrawal is determined by either:

1. The date the student notifies CGSE in writing of his/her decision to withdraw, or
2. The date the student is officially dismissed from the Program

A student who withdraws on or prior to the 45th day before the start of the program will receive a 100% refund, less the non-refundable confirmation payment.

A student who withdraws after the 45th day prior to the program start date, but before the actual start of the program, will receive an 80% refund of the Comprehensive Fee (Tuition + Program Fee) less the non-refundable confirmation payment.

After the program starts, the student forfeits 100% of the Comprehensive Fee (Tuition + Program Fee).

In all cases, Dickinson retains the right to deduct non-recoverable costs from any applicable refund. These would include costs, incurred after the confirmation deposit is received, for hotel, excursions, and transportation costs, etc.

For students receiving Financial Aid, the financial aid refund rules apply as stated in the Dickinson College Bulletin under the Dickinson College Refund Policy.
