

WORKSHOP: RENEWING CIVIC LEARNING PLANS

FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 2021 | 12-2:30PM | VIA ZOOM

---

Join CCLA and Dr. Carrie Williams Howe for this interactive session designed to review and refresh your departmental Civic Learning Plan! Whether your Plan was completed last year or three years ago, this session will provide the opportunity to learn about recent research in the field of civic learning, review progress made on the initial plan, and provide an opportunity for reflection and planning for further enhancement.

We encourage two or more faculty members to attend per department. Attendees will have priority consideration for future implementation grants.

Please RSVP by February 19th to Gary Kirk at kirkg@dickinson.edu.

ABOUT DR. CARRIE WILLIAMS HOWE

Dr. Carrie Williams Howe is a curriculum development consultant and facilitator with expertise in college student and adult learning. Dr. Williams Howe directed a service-learning office at The University of Vermont for 10 years before leaving to direct Vermont Campus Compact and later serve as Executive Director of The Vermont Higher Education Council. After 20 years in higher education, she is now a full-time consultant working with nonprofit and educational organizations to develop curriculum, training materials, and meetings that help individuals and organizations reach their full potential. She has a PhD in Educational Leadership with a focus on college and adult learning from the University of Vermont and a masters in Higher Education & Student Affairs.