

Spring 2022
International Studies Elective Courses

World Economy and Development:

INST273: International Political Economy

INST290: Human Rights

ANTH212: Development Anthropology

EASN206: The Politics of High-Speed Growth in Asia

ECON230: Political Economy of Gender

ECON351: Gender and Development

HIST260: World on the Move: Migrations since 1850

Global Security:

ENGL101: Women write War

INST290: Human Rights

INST290: US Public Diplomacy in the Arab World

Sustainability and Global Environment:

ERSC142: Earth's Changing Climate

ERSC250: Introduction to Arctic Studies

HIST151: History of Environment

Note: IS majors with a country or region concentration should consult Banner and their advisor for courses that count toward their concentration.

To see a previous semester's IS electives in the concentrations of "Globalization and Sustainability" and "Security Studies", please click on the appropriate link below:

- SPRING 2021 Elective offerings
- FALL 2020 Elective offerings
- SPRING 2020 Elective offerings
- FALL 2019 Elective offerings
- SPRING 2019 Elective offerings
- FALL 2018 Elective offerings
- SPRING 2018 Elective offerings
- FALL 2017 Elective offerings