MEMORIAL SERVICE

Dr. J. Cody Nielsen

Dr. J. Cody Nielsen is the Director of the Center for Spirituality and Social Justice and Instructor at Dickinson College. Cody works nationally on issues of religious, secular, and spiritual equity and has formerly served the University of Guelph, Harvard, MIT, American University, and the University of Minnesota. Cody is active with national higher education organizations including co-chairing ACPA's Commission on Spirituality, Faith, Meaning, and Purpose and serving on the External Relations Board. A former United Methodist campus minister and chaplain, Cody focuses on the student experience and also teaching from a critical religious pluralism frame as he works to advocate for religious equity within institutions of higher education.

John E. Jones III

John E. Jones III '77, P'11, was named Dickinson's 30th president on Feb. 28, 2022, following his appointment as the college's interim president in summer 2021. Jones previously served as chair of Dickinson's board of trustees and as chief judge of the U.S. Middle District Court of Pennsylvania, a position to which he was appointed by President George W. Bush, and was unanimously confirmed by the U.S. Senate, in 2002.

As a longtime federal judge, Jones has presided over high-profile cases, including the landmark case of Kitzmiller v. Dover School District, after which he held that it was unconstitutional to teach intelligent design within a public-school science curriculum. He also resolved the matter of Whitewood v. Wolf by striking down as unconstitutional Pennsylvania's ban on same-sex marriage. Jones co-chaired Pa. Gov.-elect Tom Ridge's transition team and served as chair of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board.

Jones has received numerous accolades during his career. In 2006 Time magazine named him as one of its 100 most influential people in the world. Jones was the recipient of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's first John Marshall Judicial Independence Award. He also received the Geological Society of America's President's Medal and was inducted into the George Washington Spirit Society. An engaged alumnus and champion of the liberal arts, Jones holds an honorary doctorate in law and public policy from Dickinson. Dickinson also has recognized Jones as one of the 25 most influential graduates in the college's history.

Born and raised in Schuylkill County, Pa., Jones is a graduate of Mercersburg Academy and Penn State Dickinson Law, in addition to Dickinson College. He and his wife Beth have two children, Meghan and John '11, and three grandchildren.
