Important Notes:

- When determining the amount of your contribution, you will need to separately account for the estimated health insurance costs ($2,500), one-time fees of $125, and any travel anticipated above $1,000 per year. They should be removed from your calculated contribution as Dickinson financial aid does not provide funding for these items
- Dickinson requires an equal contribution each year of attendance. If your contributions are different across academic years, your contribution will be averaged over all four years.
- Your contributions on this form should match your contributions on the Certification of Finances (COF).
