

Yellow Honey Bee Room

January 2023

Theme: All about Winter

Family participation/information: We will continue to work on learning our colors, shapes, numbers, and counting. Michele & I will spend more time working one-on-one with your child with these concepts. Also we will start helping you to potty train your child.

* OBJECTIVES/Goals:

- * learning to use more words
- * Learning our colors
- * Learning our numbers
- * Learning our shapes
- * Working on PBIS breathing techniques
- * Learning to know our Big #3 (be safe, be kind, be responsible)

Approaches to Learning Through Play

- AL. 2.YT,D- recognize simple patterns in the environment
- * identify patterns in environment (spots on animals, strips on shirts)
 - * Dance to rhythmic music

Language & Literacy Development

- 1.2 YT.C- identify and imitates sounds in the environment
- * label sounds when they are heard (say dog, when they hear a dog bark)
 - * Repeat a sound sequence (E,I,E,I,O)

Math

2,1.YT.A.1- imitate rote counting using some names and numbers

- * attempt to count. Not always in the right order.

Social Studies

5.2. YT.A- Demonstrate sense of belonging to a group such as a class

- * follow the established daily routine
- * Demonstrate familiarity with people and settings (upon arrival walk to their classroom)

Health, wellness, and physical development

10.2.YT.A- engage in fundamental practices for good health

- * individualized daily routines (eating, toileting, sleeping)

Creative Thinking and expression

9.1..V. YT.A- Demonstrate an understanding of basic elements of visual art

- * demonstrates understanding of colors

SCIENTIFIC THINKING:

3.2,YT.A.1- engage with objects to learn about their characteristics

- * explore arying shapes, sizes, colors

Social / Emotional:

16.3 YT.B.-demonstrate basic understanding of rules

- * understand one word rules such as no and stop
- * Follow simple rules with adult guidance