

Copyright Use Policy

The goal of the Copyright Use Policy is to provide relevant, common-sense guidelines to help faculty, students, and staff exercise their rights to use information in the furtherance of their education and research while remaining within the legal parameters of existing copyright law. This policy can be found in the Campus Policy Manual at:

https://www.dickinson.edu/homepage/1156/library_information_systems

Updated 4/26/2023 (Original statement found on page 50)