Technology Agreement:

Student staff members should only use the provided housing database for work-related purposes. Using this database for personal motive is strictly prohibited. Each student staff member is provided unique credentials for individual use and should not be shared with other students, faculty, or staff members. All activities completed within the housing database is logged within the system. These logs may periodically be checked by Campus Life staff and student staff users accessing data without reason or attempting to access data outside of the scope of their work will receive follow up and potential job action dependent on the severity of the situation.

Student staff members on-call use a department-owned iPhone as part of their on-call responsibilities. When on call, the student staff member will receive an iPhone and accessories, including a power adapter, charging cable, case, and software for use. The student staff member may not install any software which violates the Dickinson College's Responsible Use Information Technology Resources Policy. Uninstalling any provided or iOS software or profiles is not permitted. Campus Life professional staff will monitor the iPhone to ensure compliance with Dickinson College's Responsible Use Information Technology Policy and this agreement. Any attempt to "jailbreak" the device or to remove any Residence Life & Housing information will not be permitted.

The student staff member shall use reasonable care to ensure that the iPhone and accessories are not damaged. In the event of damage or loss/theft of the iPhone or accessories, it is the student staff member's responsibility to notify Campus Life professional staff as soon as possible.

The iPhone should be secured or always attended. Staff members should avoid situations that are conducive to loss or damage, including but not limited to, broken screens, water damage, or extreme temperatures. Staff should not alter the physical equipment or make permanent changes. Staff should return the phone and its accessories in the same condition they were received at the end of their on-call shift.

Key Agreement:

Student staff members will have access to building or campus-wide master keys to assist with on-call responsibilities, room inventories, health & safety inspections, and opening/closing procedures. When in possession of master keys, student staff members are responsible for safe-keeping and proper usage. Student staff members should only key into spaces identified by professional staff or rooms that students are locked out of while the locked-out student is present. Student staff members should always be accompanied by another Campus Life staff member when using a master key to enter a space. When exiting a space, the student staff member(s) should lock all doors behind them.

The student staff member who signed out the master key is responsible for the appropriate safe-keeping and usage of the key. They are expected to uphold and role-model policy for keys and lockouts as outlined in the Dickinson College's Residential Living Guidelines and Policies.

Confidentiality Agreement:

As a student employee of Dickinson College, I understand that I have the responsibility and duty to protect the privacy of all College information, including but not limited to information regarding current students and former students. I recognize that at any time I may be made aware of any confidential and/or private information about the College and/or information pertaining to current and former students. I understand that all information that I obtain, see, observe, hear, or become aware of by any means is considered confidential. I further understand that the unauthorized release or discussion with others of such information, whether to parties internal or external to the College, is strictly prohibited and may lead to immediate termination from residence life student employee role.

As a Dickinson College student employee, I also understand that there are legal prohibition to the dissemination of student information to others under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).

If I am in doubt about a request for information, I understand that it is my responsibility to discuss the request with my supervisor prior to a decision to release the information. If I become aware of a violation of the Confidentiality Agreement, I must report it immediately to my supervisor.
