

Emergency Leave

Summary

Any other unexpected or unplanned absence from work stemming from an emergency must also be reported based on the department's time entry method. Such emergency leaves will be granted for no more than one working day per fiscal year. All emergency leave is charged against an employee's sick leave.