

FALL 2025 | ENERGY TRANSITION SERIES

AN ENERGY TRANSITION IS UNDERWAY GLOBALLY THAT IS EXPANDING THE USE OF RENEWABLE SOURCES OF ENERGY TO SUPPLY GROWING DEMANDS WHILE REDUCING EMISSIONS OF CLIMATE CHANGING AND OTHER POLLUTION.

CHECK OUT THIS EVENT SERIES TO LEARN MORE ABOUT WHERE WE ARE CURRENTLY AND WHERE THINGS ARE HEADING.

► THE ENERGY TRANSITION AND THE GLOBAL ECONOMY: PANEL OF DICKINSONIANS

SEPTEMBER 25 | NOON–1:30 P.M. | ALTHOUSE 106 | LUNCH PROVIDED

PANELISTS: Nate Teti '96, Vice President and Head of the Washington DC Office of Equinor

Heather Plumridge Bedi, Associate Professor of Environmental Studies

Tony Underwood, Associate Professor of Economics

MODERATOR: Neil Leary, Director of the Center for Sustainability Education

► ACCELERATING THE CLEAN ENERGY TRANSITION TO LOW-CARBON SOLUTIONS, A CONVERSATION WITH LEADERS OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL DEFENSE FUND

OCTOBER 29 | 7 P.M. | ATS

PANELISTS: Millie Chu Baird, Vice President, Office of the Chief Scientist, EDF

Dan Grossman, Associate Vice President for Energy Transition, EDF

Beth Trask, Vice President, Global Energy Transition, EDF

MODERATOR: Neil Leary, Director of the Center for Sustainability Education

EDF is the recipient of the 2025 Sam Rose '58 and Julie Walters Prize at Dickinson College for Global Environmental Activism.

► SCREENING OF DOCUMENTARY FILM KING COAL

NOVEMBER 11 | 5 P.M. | ALTHOUSE 106

Free film screening in person and online.

► A CONVERSATION ON THE MAKING OF THE FILM KING COAL

NOVEMBER 12 | 7 P.M. | ATS

SPEAKERS: Filmmaker Elaine McMillion Sheldon and Professor Emerita Sherry Harper-McCombs

SCAN HERE OR EMAIL
SUSTAINABILITY@
DICKINSON.EDU
FOR MORE INFO!