

Scholarships & Benefits

National and campus-based scholarship opportunities

Full tuition and fees for qualifying scholarship winners

Dickinson offers an additional $10,000 room & board grant

$420 monthly stipend for contracted cadets

$600 per semester book allowance

LEARN MORE

LTC Jacob Phillips

(717) 222-7244

BMBROTC@dickinson.edu

dickinson.edu/militaryscience

Visit a class, meet cadets, and learn how Army ROTC can fit your Dickinson experience.

Why Dickinson ROTC?

Build confidence, character, and leadership

Balance ROTC with academics, athletics, study abroad, and campus life

Train with a close-knit team and grow through challenge

Graduate prepared to lead in the Army and beyond

Take the Mountain.

Army ROTC at Dickinson

Lead at Dickinson. Serve with Purpose.

Scholarships • Leadership • Adventure • Service

BLUE MOUNTAIN BATTALION

Develop as a scholar, athlete, and leader while earning your Dickinson degree.

College Life as a Cadet

Army ROTC is designed to complement the Dickinson experience. Cadets can balance ROTC with academics, athletics, campus organizations, internships, and study abroad while developing the leadership skills to serve after graduation.

Thrive in the classroom

Compete, lead, and serve

Build lifelong friendships

Explore the world

Challenge yourself.
Belong to something bigger.

Leadership Development

1. Military Science Classes

Learn decision-making, communication, ethics, and organizational leadership from experienced Army leaders.

2. Leadership Labs

Apply what you learn through hands-on training, tactical problems solving, and team-based exercises.

3. Physical Fitness

Train with purpose through group workouts, ruck marches, and fitness challenges that build resilience and teamwork.

Army ROTC develops leaders who are prepared for service, graduate school, and civilian careers alike.

Training & Opportunities

Field Training Exercises

Ranger Challenge

Cadet Summer Training
at Fort Knox

Airborne and Air Assault opportunities

Land navigation, obstacle courses, and adventure training

Take the Mountain.