Return the documents requested to the College Board as soon as possible. Contact the colleges and programs that requested the information and explain your circumstances.

Yes, you may upload materials to IDOC as soon as they are available. Please be sure to meet the IDOC Deadline above.
How long does it take to process my information once the College Board receives it?

It takes about five business days to process the information once the College Board receives it.

If a student’s parents do not have a SSN/SIN, what should the student enter in the IDOC portal?

If a parent, student, or spouse has no SSN or SIN, then they should leave the field blank. They should not enter a dummy number. They should make sure that the name listed in family information matches the name they have on their documents exactly (no nicknames, don’t use a hyphenated name in one place and not the other, etc.). They should also be sure to write their IDOC ID number on the documents that don’t have it already, such as foreign tax returns.
