RECOMMENDED COURSE PROGRESSION FOR THE INBM MAJOR

INBM 110

INBM 230

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR:

- Three foreign language courses beyond intermediate level, with the option of taking the third INBM 300 in replacement of the third foreign language course. International students who have fulfilled the language requirement in their native language and who do not pursue a second language as part of their program at Dickinson must take 2 courses with U.S. content in the social sciences or humanities.
- An internship through the Internship Notation Program (INP) with transcript notation.

KEEP IN MIND:

- INBM Majors are strongly encouraged to study abroad, and to choose a study abroad site that allows them to use and further develop their foreign language.
- Courses for the major that can be taken abroad are the 300-level electives and language courses.
- Although the 200-level INBM courses can be taken in any order, it is strongly advised that INBM 220 be taken as early as possible and before INBM 250.
