Health Forms Overdue

Health Forms were due to the Wellness Center on July 1. If you have not finished your forms or are not in compliance with college requirements, please complete all documentation and send it to the Wellness Center immediately so as not to delay entry to your residence hall at move-in.

Summer Send-Offs

The celebrations continue! Throughout July and August, you and your family are invited to connect with your new classmates as well as alumni, parents and current students at Summer Send-Offs around the country. Registration is available now!

Technology Tips

Wondering whether to bring a laptop or desktop? Mac or PC? What about wireless access on campus? Find everything you need on the Library & Information Services site.

Frequently Asked Questions

Be sure to utilize the Frequently Asked Questions page on the Orientation site to help you navigate some of the common questions posed by incoming students.

Summer Academic Advising

A member of the summer advising staff will help you create your first semester class schedule. An advisor will call students during the summer academic advising period (July 11-15) unless previous arrangements have been made. Get more information and your scheduled calling date on the advising page of the Orientation site and be sure to check your Dickinson email account for any updates. Questions about Summer Advising (or to provide us with a cell phone number or let us know that the day you are scheduled for your call will not work) should be directed to summeradvising@dickinson.edu.

E-Billing and Proxy Access

The Student Accounts Office offers paperless billing for students, as well as the ability for parents to be assigned as a proxy, which will allow them to receive monthly email notifications when a new invoice has been generated and to view, print and pay online in real-time. Learn more and enroll today.

Reminder: Dining Services is Hiring

Working on campus gives students the opportunity to gain real-world employment experience, earn extra income, and connect with other students outside of the classroom. Visit our website or email us for more information.

An Alumni Moment

"Basketball is a very harsh business at the professional level, and while it's not the typical office job, there are many similarities that go on behind the scenes within each organization. My education at Dickinson allowed me to understand business decisions and ethics that may be present in all types of industries"

-Adam Honig '14, professional athlete in the Israeli Basketball Premier League

Course Request

After speaking with your summer academic advisor, you will have the opportunity to request courses July 18-25. Get more information about how to prepare on the Orientation site. Be sure to review all the information, including how to submit your course selections.

Preparing for the Big Move

We know you're busy making lists, shopping and packing (and awaiting your housing and roommate assignments, which will come in early August), so we wanted to share some helpful resources. Check out our Greener Packing List for tips on what to bring—and what to leave behind. The Dickinson Pinterest account has lots of great boards to follow, including Dorm Living \(Tips, Organizing & DIY Ideas for Dickinson Students\). We can't wait to see how you will make your dorm room your own!

Zero Carbon in 2020

Class of 2020, Dickinson needs your help to battle climate change and reach our ambitious goal of carbon neutrality (zero net emissions of carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases) by the year you graduate. We've made some progress on our Climate Action Plan, and we have some big projects planned. But we need you to step up as the Class of Carbon Neutrality by championing campus energy conservation to get us to and beyond our goal.

Student Snapshots

In these short Q&As current students fill you in on everything from why they chose Dickinson to their favorite Dining Hall food.
