

The Writing Program would like to announce the ninth annual FYS Excellence in Writing Awards.

We are presenting up to three awards of $100 each for the best essays written in FYS classes. The essays can be of any length, in any genre, and for any FYS course. We accept one submission per student, and the essay must have been written in fall 2017 for a First-Year Seminar. You may revise your work with the help of professors, peers, or writing tutors as many times as you would like up until the due date.

We ask that all submissions include the assignment prompt, a cover sheet with the title of the essay, your name, the number and name of the FYS course, and the name of the FYS instructor. You should send your submissions electronically to the Writing Program at wetzalc@dickinson.edu or drop them off at the Norman M. Eberly Writing Center, located on the Main Floor of the library. The contest closes at 4:00 p.m. on December 8.

The winners will be notified in January and receive their awards at a special reception hosted by the Waidner-Spahr Library in the Biblio Café.
