

Crime Prevention

Policy/Procedure

The Dickinson College Department of Public Safety (DPS) is committed to working to prevent crimes before they can occur, reducing the potential victimization of members of the campus community. DPS employs a Crime Prevention Coordinator to promote prevention strategies for the College community. All DPS Officers also receive crime prevention training. DPS personnel are available to provide prevention training, programming and materials upon request. Requests can be made by phone 717-245-1349 or emailing loudong@dickinson.edu.
