Gentlemen:

On the basis of your statement and the information recently submitted regarding the admissions policy of your institution, and the publicizing thereof, and with the understanding that such policies will remain in effect, we confirm the exempt status of your institution under Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(a), as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3).

This confirmation does not preclude a reevaluation of your admissions policy at a later date. It also does not preclude an examination of the operations of your institution to determine if the policy as described in your statement is being implemented.

Very truly yours,

Alfred L. Whinston
District Director
Dickinson College
Carlisle,
Pennsylvania

Gentlemen:

It is the opinion of this office based upon the evidence presented that you are exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it is shown that you are organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes.

Accordingly, you are not required to file income tax returns unless you change the character of your organization, the purposes for which you were organized, or your method of operation. Any such changes should be reported immediately to the District Director of Internal Revenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in order that their effect upon your exempt status may be determined.

It will not be necessary for you to file the annual return of information, Form 990-A, generally required of organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as you come within the specific exceptions contained in section 6033(a) of the Code.

Contributions made to you are deductible by donors in computing their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers to or for your use are deductible in computing the value of the net estate of a decedent for estate tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided by section 2055 and section 2106(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. Gifts of property to you are deductible in computing net gifts for gift tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided in section 2522(a)(2) and section 2522(b)(2) and (3) of the Code.

No liability is incurred by you for the taxes imposed under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Social Security taxes) unless you have filed a waiver of exemption certificate in accordance with the applicable provisions of such act.
Dickinson College

In the event you desire Social Security coverage for your employees but have not filed a waiver certificate, you should take the matter up with this office. Tax liability is not incurred by you under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act by virtue of section 3306 (c) (6) of such act.

Your attention is called to the provisions of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 under which your exemption will be revoked if any substantial part of your activities consists of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or if you participate in, or intervene in (including publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Very truly yours,

Instructions for completing Michigan Sales and Use Tax Certificate of Exemption

The purchaser shall complete all four sections of the exemption certificate to establish a valid exemption claim. A seller must meet a "good faith" standard required by law. "Good faith" means that the seller received a completed and signed Certificate of Exemption from the purchaser. Sellers must retain the exemption certificates for a period of at least four years.

Michigan does not issue "tax exemption numbers". Sellers should not accept a number as evidence of exemption from sales or use tax. A purchaser who claims exemption for "resale at retail" or "for lease" must provide the seller with an exemption certificate and their sales tax license number or use tax registration number.

SECTION 1:
Place a check in the box that describes how you will use this certificate.
a) Choose "One time purchase" and include the invoice number this certificate covers.
b) Choose "blanket certificate" if there is a "recurring business relationship." This exists when a period of not more than 12 months elapses between sales transactions between the seller and purchaser.
c) Choose "Blanket" and enter the expiration date (maximum four years) when there is a period of more than 12 months between sales transactions.

Print the vendor's name and address in the area provided.

SECTION 2:
Place a check in the box for "All items purchased" or choose "Limited to" and list the items that are covered by the exemption claim.

SECTION 3:
Place a check in the box that applies and provide the additional information requested for that exemption. The exemptions listed are the most common. If the exemption you are claiming is not listed use "Other" and enter the qualifying exemption.

SECTION 4:
Use the number that describes your business or explain any other business type not provided.
