PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Lonna M. Malsheimer received her Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota and is Professor of American Studies at Dickinson College. In the months following the Three Mile Island nuclear accident on March 28, 1979, Professor Malsheimer, with the help of Professors Melissa Kassovic, Julius Kassovic and Daniel Bechtel, conducted research and interviews of the Carlisle public. The general aim of the project was to discover the public reaction and personal feelings towards the nuclear accident. Those interviewed included people in the Carlisle community, workers in various county offices, the staff of local hospitals, students in the local public schools, as well as Dickinson College staff, professors, administrators, and students. The 2003 collection builds on her 1979 research with the aid of Prof. Kim Lacy Rogers, and consists of interview transcripts, audio cassette tapes, videos and DV tapes.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The collection is divided into 3 series. Series 1 consists of 15 interview transcripts, typed accounts of TMI interviews conducted by the various interviewers. Series 2 consists of 4 folders of general papers, including a course syllabus, consent forms and other information pertaining to the 25th Anniversary of the TMI meltdown. Series 3 consists of corresponding media: 13 audio cassette tapes, 15 video tapes and 13 DV tapes.
